WESTERN LIBERAL. NAPOLEON AT ST. HELENA.

His Indignation at Being Spied Upon by His Keepers.

One of the "Talks With Napoleon" quoted from Dr. O'Menra's diary in The Century records Napoleon's Indignation at being, as he considered it, spied upon while living at St. Helena. "I understand," said he, "that an officer is placed here to report about me and to see me two or three times in the 24 hours and that they are talking of making him go into my chamber 1 75 to see me if I did not come out. Any person," said be then, with considerable agitation, "who endeavors to force his way into my apartment will be a corpse the moment be enters it. If he ever eats bread or meat afterward, I am not Napoleon. This I am determined on.

"I know that I will be killed afterward, as what can one do against a camp? But what of that? I have faced death many a time. Besides I am convinced that this governor, this lahed." chief of jailers, has been sent out on purpose to poison me or put me to death some way or another or under some pretext by Lord Cartlereagh.

"I have seen," continued he, "Russinns, Prussinns, Arabs, Cossacks, Tartars, Spanmerds, Persians, Turks" (here he enumerated a great many more), "and never in my life before did I behold so ill favored and forbidding a countenance or so down and horrid a look. He carries crime imprinted on his countenance. (Il porte my, that one would select for the dian Territory meet. committal of any atroclous crime and as such has been selected out by your ministers, I suppose, on purpose to make away with me."

WON HIM A BRIDE.

The Ruse by Which One Young Man's Credit Was Established.

Major J. M. Burke told a good story of his experience in helping a friend to get the girl of his choice.

"He was a good fellow," said he,
"but young and without much capital. The girl was a beauty and loved the boy, but the father (the same old frate father) objected and demanded that the boy show that he was capable of supporting a wife. This was in St. came to me with his troubles.

"'Never mind,' said 1. 'T'll fix it up all right. By the way, how much will you take for your right leg?"
"He locked at me as though I were

Doubled Him Up.

A prominent western clergyman, W. W. White by name, was a member of a learned society in which there were several members who were fond of quibbling. During a speech he had been annoyed by their interruptions almost beyond the point of endurance. At last he said, "I trust I will not be

All coaches of the Santa Fe railroad will in the future be painted a "Pullman" brown. This applies to new coaches as well as to coaches being rebuilt. The first car to be turned out painted a Pullman brown was a combination baggage and express car. The next was a chair car. This car has been rebuilt and fitted with the wide vestibule plut forms. The lettering is in gold leaf without the shading. A single narrow gold stripe is used instead of the yellow and black. The words "Atchisen, Topeka & Santa Fe." which run the entire length of the car are being left of and just the two words "Santa Fe" are being placed in the center. The wide vestibules are not only being put on the old ones as fast as they can be spared from service. Already two-thirds of the chair cars, diners and sleeppers have been so fitted.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to known of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprictors of Dr. Kings New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeiess cases.
